Applicant Privacy Rights

As an applicant who is the subject of a Georgia only or a Georgia and Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) national fingerprint/biometric-based criminal history check for a non-criminal justice purpose (such as an application for criminal justice or non-criminal justice employment or a license, an immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below. All notices must be provided to you in writing. These obligations are pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, Title 5, United States Code (U.S.C.) Section 552a, and Title 28 Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), 50.12, among other authorities.

- You must be provided written notification that your fingerprints/biometrics will be used to check the criminal history records maintained by the Georgia Crime Information Center (GCIC) and the FBI, when a federal record check is so authorized.
- You must be provided an adequate written FBI Privacy Act Statement (dated 2013 or later) when you submit your fingerprints and associated personal information. This Privacy Act Statement must explain the authority for collecting your fingerprints and associated information and whether your fingerprints and associated information will be searched, shared, or explained.
- You must be advised in writing of the procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or update of your criminal history record as set forth at 28 CFR 16.34.
- You must be provided the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in your criminal history record (if you have such a record).
- If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the officials deny you the employment, license, or other benefit based on the information in the criminal history record.
- If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may find information regarding how to obtain a copy of your Georgia criminal history record at the GBI website: <https://gbi.georgia.gov/services/obtaining-criminal-history-record-information-frequently-asked-questions> Information regarding how to obtain a copy of your FBI criminal history record is located at the FBI website: <https://www.edo.cjis.gov>
- If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your criminal history record, you should contact and send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information. If the disputed arrest occurred in the State of Georgia, you may send your challenge directly to the GCIC. Contact information for the GCIC can be found at <https://gbi.georgia.gov/services/obtaining-criminal-history-record-information-frequently-asked-questions> Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI by submitting a request via <https://www.edo.cjis.gov>. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenge entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency. (See 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34.)
- You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for the authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.

Privacy Act Statement

This privacy act statement is located on the back of the (blue) FD-258 fingerprint card.

Authority: The FBI's acquisition, preservation, and exchange of fingerprints and associated information is generally authorized under 28 U.S.C. 534. Depending on the nature of your application, supplemental authorities include Federal statutes, State statutes pursuant to Pub. L. 92-544, Presidential Executive Orders, and federal regulations. Providing your fingerprints and associated information is voluntary; however, failure to do so may affect completion or approval of your application.

Principle Purpose: Certain determinations, such as employment, licensing, and security clearances, may be predicated on fingerprint-based background checks. Your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics may be provided to the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency, and/or the FBI for the purpose of comparing your fingerprints to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories) or other available records of the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency. The FBI may retain your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics in NGI after the completion of this application and, while retained, your fingerprints may continue to be compared against other fingerprints submitted to or retained by NGI.

Routine Uses: During the processing of this application and for as long thereafter as your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics are retained in NGI, your information may be disclosed pursuant to your consent, and may be disclosed without your consent as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974 and all applicable Routine Uses as may be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the Routine Uses for the NGI system and the FBI's Blanket Routine Uses. Routine uses include, but are not limited to, disclosures to: employing, governmental or authorized non-governmental agencies responsible for employment, contracting, licensing, security clearances, and other suitability determinations; local, state, tribal, or federal law enforcement agencies; criminal justice agencies; and agencies responsible for national security or public safety.

Applicant Privacy Rights Notification Signature Form

Applicant Notification and Record Challenge:

Your fingerprints or name-based consent will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI. You have the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information contained in the FBI identification record. The procedure of obtaining a change, correction or updating an FBI identification record is set forth in Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), 16.34. Procedures for obtaining a copy of the FBI criminal history record are set forth in 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.33 or review the FBI website.

ARTICLE X. - DOOR-TO-DOOR SOLICITATION

Footnotes:

--- (4) ---

Editor's note— Ord. No. 2019-20, adopted Oct. 21, 2019, enacted new provisions to be designated as art. X, §§ 10-279—10-287. As there exist sections with those designations, said new provisions have been redesignated as art. X, §§ 10-289—10-297. Original ordinance numbering has been maintained in the history notes following each section.

Sec. 10-289. - Intent and purpose.

The intent of the city council in enacting this article is to regulate the sale of goods and services by solicitors or canvassers at residences in the city in order to diminish criminal activity in the city and abusive techniques utilized by any such solicitor or canvasser which adversely affect the public health, safety and welfare in the city. This article is not intended as a de facto prohibition of door-to-door solicitation, nor is it an attempt to adversely affect interstate commerce. Instead, this article is intended to balance competing interests, reduce criminal activity and protect city citizens from abusive sales techniques versus the conduct of proper commercial sales activity. This article is not intended to allow any business activity which would otherwise be unlawful.

(Ord. No. 2019-20, § 10-279, 10-21-2019)

Sec. 10-290. - Definitions.

The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this article, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in this section, except where context clearly indicates a different meaning:

City and any reference to "city" shall mean the City of Dallas, Georgia.

Handbill means any printed or written material, any leaflet, pamphlet, paper, booklet, or any other printed or otherwise reproduced original copies of any matter or literature pertaining to any speech, whether commercial or noncommercial.

Marshal or any reference to "marshal" or "city marshal" shall be the marshal of the City of Dallas, Georgia.

Municipal court and any reference to "municipal court" shall be municipal court of the City of Dallas, Georgia.

Municipal judge or any reference to "municipal judge" or "judge" shall be the judge of the municipal court of the City of Dallas, Georgia.

Police and chief of police and any reference to "chief of police" or "police" shall mean the chief of police and the police officers of the City of Dallas, Georgia.

Solicitor or canvasser means any person who solicits orders or appointments on behalf of a firm, corporation, company, association, partnership or individual for any goods, wares, services, or merchandise or other things of value, from house to house. Any person who obtains orders or appointments for merchandise, services, or other things of value shall be deemed a solicitor. The term solicitor or canvasser shall not mean an individual or field sales representative working for or on behalf of a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization, political organizations, or students or parents of students (i.e., PTA, booster club organizations) participating in approved school-sponsored fund raisers.

(Ord. No. 2019-20, § 10-280, 10-21-2019)

Sec. 10-291. - Solicitor/canvasser permit.

(a) Permit required; applicability of article.

(1) Resident/nonresident solicitors/canvassers. All solicitors or canvassers are subject to all rules and regulations of this article and hold a current business license within the State of Georgia or city.

(b) Application; investigation of applicant; grounds for denial.

(1) No solicitor/canvasser shall be authorized to solicit orders until he files an application with the marshal of the city and obtains a permit and registers as a solicitor. This application shall be upon forms prescribed by the city and sworn to, under oath, by any solicitor/canvasser applying for such permit. Upon application, the marshal of the city, within ten days, shall examine the police record, if any, of the applicant. No permit shall be given to any applicant who shall have either a pending charge or a conviction for a crime of moral turpitude or an offense involving the elements of assault and battery, or any civil judgment involving unethical and improper business actions, including, but not limited to, action which would constitute fraud and deceit under the laws of the state.

(2) No application for a permit under this section shall be received or acted upon if the applicant has submitted the same or a similar application for a permit within the preceding 12 months, which prior application has been dismissed, denied or abandoned. No permit shall be granted if the applicant is in violation of this article or has, within 12 months preceding the application, been in violation of this article or any law or ordinance regulating the activities for which such permit is sought.

(c) Fee. The applicant for a solicitor's permit shall pay a fee as specified by the marshal of the city, as cost for investigation and regulation under this article. This fee shall be used for payment of the cost of such registration, investigation and regulation of persons subject to this article.

(d) Term; renewal. A permit issued under this article shall be valid for 90 days from the date the permit is issued. The permit may be renewed by filing a renewal application with the marshal of the city upon forms prescribed by the office, sworn to, under oath, and paying a renewal fee as set out in the schedule of fees, to cover the expense of updating the investigative report.

- (e) Revocation. If any application contains any false information, such application shall be immediately revoked or denied by the marshal of the city.

(Ord. No. 2019-20, § 10-281, 10-21-2019)

Sec. 10-292. - Badge for solicitors.

All solicitors/canvassers shall wear a badge, the design of which shall be in the discretion of the marshal of the city, but which shall be uniform as to all solicitors/canvassers. The badge shall provide the following information: the name of the solicitor or canvasser, the name of the company, and an identification number, in large enough type to be read and seen by persons with normal vision at a distance of ten feet. At all times, the solicitor or canvasser shall wear the badge on either the left or right shoulder so that such badge can be readily seen by the owner or occupant of the premises.

(Ord. No. 2019-20, § 10-282, 10-21-2019)

Sec. 10-293. - Conduct of business by solicitors/canvassers; information to be provided to customers.

- (a) Information card required; contents. The marshal of the city shall provide to each solicitor/canvasser an information card, and the solicitor/canvasser shall present the card to each household they visit. It is the responsibility of the solicitor/canvasser to make sufficient copies of the information card to furnish a copy to each household he visits. Such card shall contain such information as required by the business license supervisor. The following statements may appear on the information card:

The solicitor/canvasser is not to enter your home except at your express invitation. The solicitor/canvasser is not to have any contact, direct, indirect or otherwise, nor is the solicitor/canvasser to leave any leaflets or other written material with the person at your home or on your property if you have a "no soliciting sign" on your property.

You have the right to refuse entry or to ask the solicitor/canvasser to leave the premises, and if he/she should fail to leave the premises after your instructions, he/she shall be in violation of the ordinance codified in this article.

Report any discourteous conduct to the City of Dallas Police Department.

A solicitor/canvasser shall place his/her name and permit number in the blank provided on the card and shall present it to the occupant of each home that he visits, unless there is a "no soliciting sign" posted on your property. If such sign is on your property, he/she should have absolutely no contact, indirect, direct or oral with you and shall not place any printed material on your property.

- (b) Failure to present information card. It shall be unlawful for a solicitor/canvasser to fail to present the card to the resident or occupant of a home at which the solicitor/canvasser solicits business as allowed by this article.

- (c) Announcement to occupant. At each house, if allowed by this article, the solicitor/canvasser shall announce to the owner or occupant of the home his name and that he has been issued a permit by the city as a solicitor/canvasser, and shall announce the purpose of his call and present the card provided for by this section and shall allow time for the occupant or owner to read the card.
- (d) Entry on private property. No solicitor/canvasser shall enter a home or come upon any property within the city limits of the city without the express invitation of the occupant or owner. If a "no soliciting" sign is posted. If such sign is posted, no solicitation shall occur.
- (e) Courteous conduct required; compliance with request to leave premises. If solicitation is allowed by this article, a solicitor/canvasser shall at all times maintain a courteous decorum and shall not use opprobrious, vulgar or slang words to any homeowner or occupant. No solicitor/canvasser shall remain upon the premises of an occupant or owner after such occupant or owner has requested the solicitor/canvasser to leave or indicated that he is not interested in purchasing the solicitor's/canvasser's product.
- (f) Misrepresentation of effect of permit. It shall be unlawful for any solicitor/canvasser to represent by word, action or deed that the issuance of a permit by the city license bureau in any way represents approval or condonation of either the actions of the solicitor/canvasser or his product.

(Ord. No. 2019-20, § 10-283, 10-21-2019)

Sec. 10-294. - City records of solicitors/canvassers; complaints against solicitors/canvassers.

- (a) The marshal of the city shall maintain true and accurate records of the name and identification number of each solicitor/canvasser, together with other information required by this article, and shall maintain a log of all complaints for each solicitor/canvasser or organization represented by solicitors/canvassers.
- (b) If the police department of the city or marshal of the city receives any ordinance violation complaints concerning a particular solicitor/canvasser, or three violation complaints concerning an organization, the marshal of the city shall issue a citation to the solicitor/canvasser notifying the solicitor/canvasser and the organization the solicitor/canvasser represents of the complaints, and notify the solicitor/canvasser that he/she shall appear before the judge of the municipal court of the city, for a hearing at a date and time certain for a determination of such violation/violations, which violation/violations shall be a misdemeanor and may result in the suspension of such permit.
- (c) The marshal of the city shall maintain a true and accurate log of each complaint, showing the name of the complainant and the substance of the complaint. Such records shall be available to the solicitor/canvasser or his company or organization, and shall be deemed a public record.

(Ord. No. 2019-20, § 10-284, 10-21-2019)

Sec. 10-295. - Appeal by solicitors/canvassers.

Any solicitor/canvasser found in violation of this article, by the municipal court of the city, may appeal by writ of certiorari, the entry of the final order of the judge of the municipal court of the city in writing within 30-day, of the entry of the final order of the judge of the municipal court of the city to the Superior Court of Paulding County, Georgia.

(Ord. No. 2019-20, § 10-286, 10-21-2019)

Sec. 10-296. - Enforcement.

Enforcement authority of this article shall be vested with the police chief, any police officer, or the city marshal of the city.

(Ord. No. 2019-20, § 10-286, 10-21-2019)

Sec. 10-297. - Penalties.

Violation of this article shall be a misdemeanor.

(Ord. No. 2019-20, § 10-287, 10-21-2019)

Secs. 10-298, 10-299. - Reserved.

City of Dallas

The solicitor/canvasser is not to enter your home except at your express invitation. The solicitor/canvasser is not to have any contact, direct, indirect or otherwise, nor is the solicitor/canvasser to leave any leaflets or other written material with the person at your home or on your property if you have a ‘NO SOLICITING SIGN’ on your property.

You have the right to refuse entry or to ask the solicitor/canvasser to leave the premises and if he/she should fail to leave the premises after your instructions, he/she shall be in violation of this Ordinance.
